JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant Adrian Becerra is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of twelve (12) months and one (1) day on Count 1 of the Indictment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of two (2) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and General Order 20-04, excluding Condition 14 in Section I of that Order.
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the U.S. Probation & Pretrial Services Officer.
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the U.S. Probation & Pretrial Services Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. During the course of supervision, the U.S. Probation & Pretrial Services Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation & Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs.

USA vs. Adrian Becerra

Docket No.: EDCR18-00134-JGB-4

The defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation & Pretrial Services Officer.

5. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to a Bureau of Prisons institution in the Southern California area.

The Court orders the defendant to self-surrender by January 8, 2021, to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 noon. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the United States Marshal, located at United States District Court, 3470 Twelfth Street, Room G-122, Riverside, California 92501. Failure of the defendant to self-surrender, by the self-surrender date and time, will result in a warrant being issued for his arrest.

The Court orders the bond exonerated upon self-surrender.

Upon the government's motion, any remaining counts are dismissed in the interest of justice.

The Court informs the defendant of his right to appeal.

USA vs. Adrian Becerra

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
